Persons with disabilities often depend on a variety of government benefits for support. Well-intentioned gifts and a lack of planning can be devastating. Our speaker will discuss how to:

- plan the estates of parents for the benefit of a child receiving public benefits so that the inheritance does not jeopardize the child's eligibility for government financed services or support;
- use a trust for the benefit of an SSI or Medicaid recipient;
- preserve eligibility for government benefits when a person with a disability receives funds from a windfall (e.g. inheritance, legal settlement, gift, etc.).

Free on-site child care is available to parents attending the meeting. You must RSVP with the names and ages of your children no later than Tuesday, February 23 at <http://ufdmarch2010.eventbrite.com/> or 847-895-2100
